

The School of Social Sciences is partnering with the College Writing Programs to expand Teaching Assistant opportunities for our graduate students.

TA Information Session

Date: March 6

Time: 3:00–4:00 p.m.

Zoom: <https://ucsd.zoom.us/j/3687363969>

During this session, graduate students will learn more about TA opportunities within the Colleges, including the scope of responsibilities and the application process. These positions not only provide an important source of funding support, but also offer valuable professional development. TAs gain transferable skills through hands-on instructional experience and build meaningful connections within a supportive academic community.
