

UTC Area

Hillcrest

Pacific Beach

Where to live in San Diego

Just our 2c

Campus Housing

La Jolla Shores

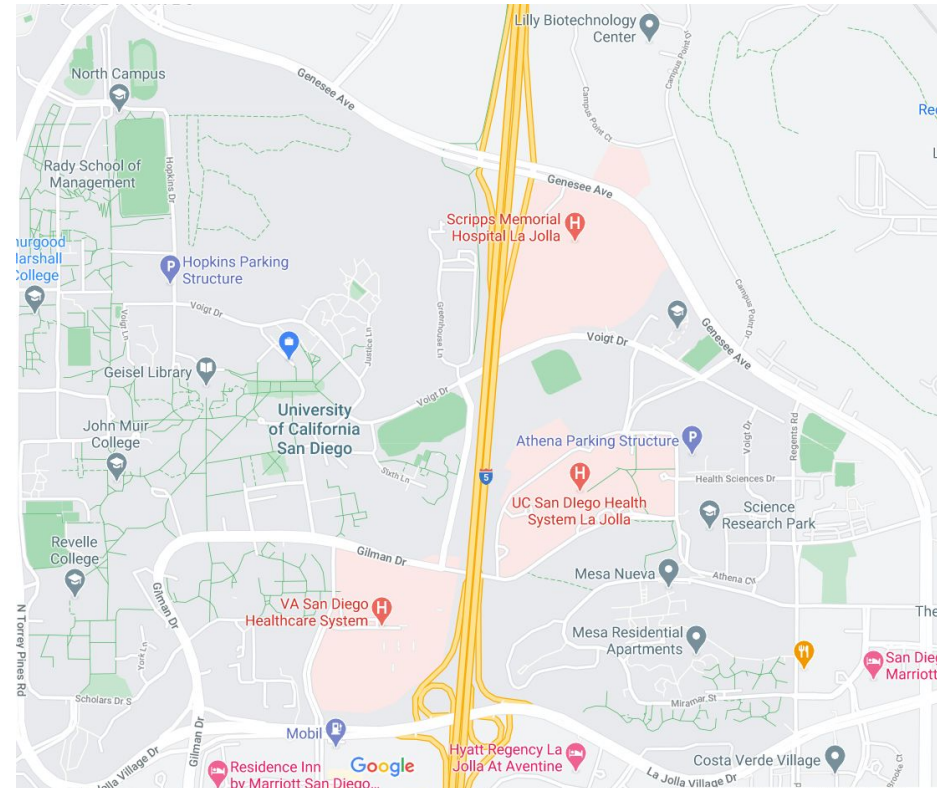

Things to consider (broadly)

- Proximity to campus/commute times
 - Need to own a car/ pay for parking?
 - Public transit (trolley) / bike paths
- Proximity to things you enjoy:
 - Beach
 - Bike paths, trails, etc.
 - Food (particular cuisines/etc.)
 - Entertainment
- Roommates
- Cost

Campus Housing

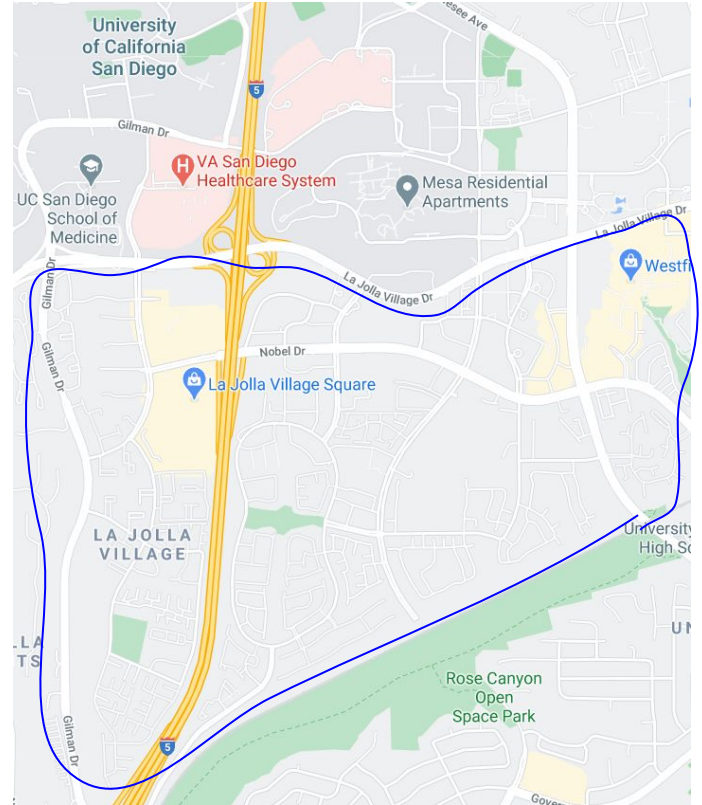

- + Near campus!
- + Near other students!
- + May not need a car (check distance for groceries and other staples)
- Singles can be expensive
- Be careful on double occupancy (check how many bedrooms there are)

UTC Area

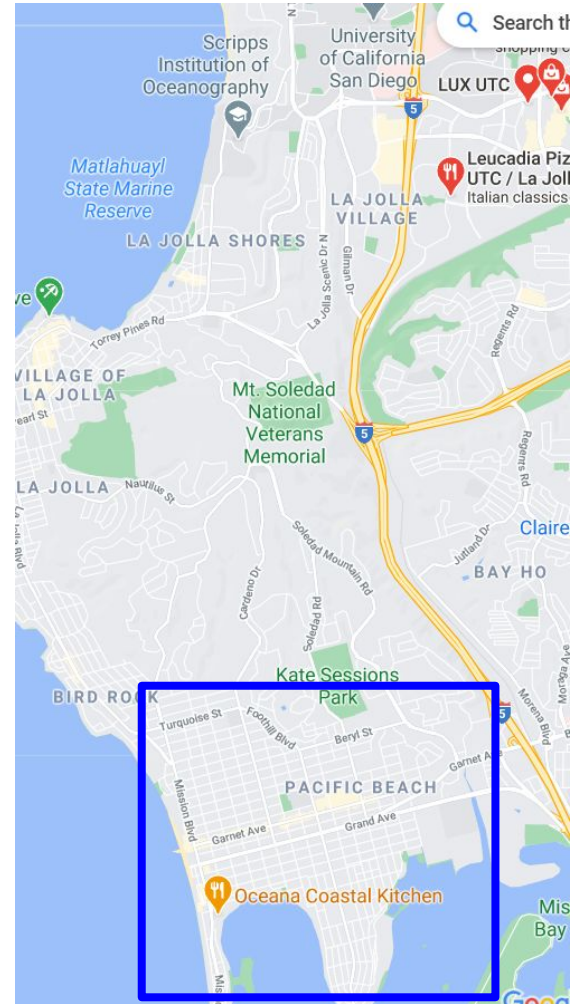

- + Near campus!
- + Near other students!
- + May not need a car (check distance for groceries and other staples)
- + Shuttles to/from campus

- Area is mostly students/families
- Can be expensive if looking for singles, but lots of 2+ bedroom options

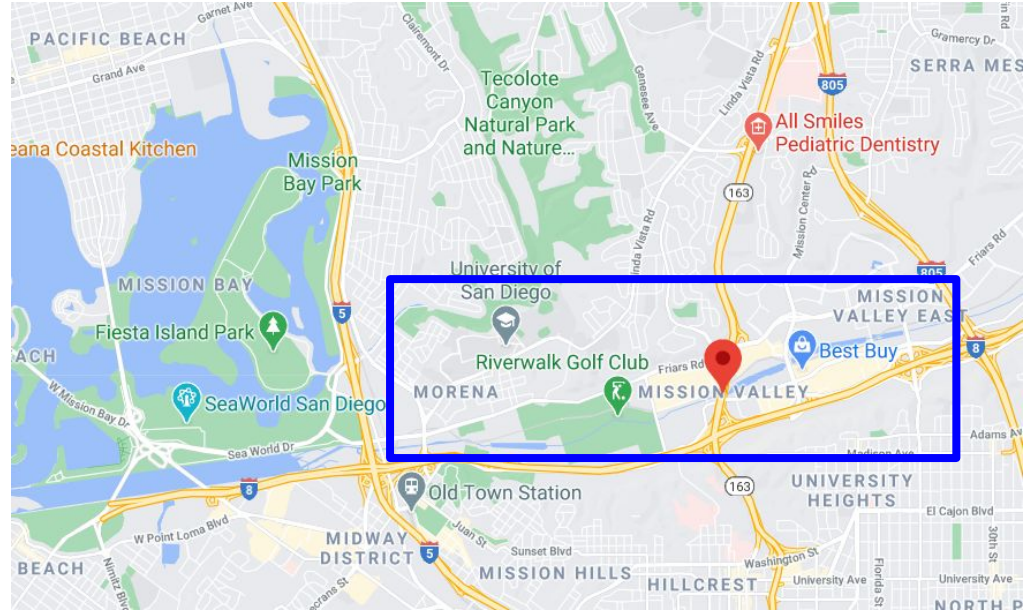

Pacific Beach

- + Near the beach! (Learn to surf!)
- + Active nightlife / restaurants
- + Can bike to campus (7 mi), but might still want a car
- + Balboa ave trolley station opening in November!
- Population is somewhat young, but there are families there as well
- Can be expensive due to proximity to the beach

Mission Valley

- + Easy access to much of the city (downtown, hillcrest, mission beach, claremont, UTC)
- + Can bike to campus, but likely want a car
- + Lower cost
- If you live in the western part, the commute is ~12 miles on a bike each direction but an easy drive on I-5
- Commute on the 805 can be rough during rush hour if you live in the eastern part

Hillcrest (and NorthPark)

- + Vibrant culture (restaurants, coffee shops, bars)!
- + Can take shuttle from UCSD's Hillcrest Medical Center to campus (a 20-25 minute bus ride – no intermediate stops though!)
- + Close to downtown and Balboa Park
- If driving yourself, this is a bit of a commute but not too bad depending on day and route

